Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

688957

In claim 1, a closure "for use with doors" is recited followed by a positive recitation of the closure structure being attached to a screen door. It is unclear if only the closure or the combination of a closure and door are being recited. The combination will be addressed.

There is no antecedent basis for: "its mounting block"; "its adjustment holes". The term "suitable" is indefinite. The term "opposite the opening" is indefinite. The term "generic door closure" is indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Nieman.

See screen door 10 (column 1, line 23), track 50, roller 46, swinging arm 40, block 32, which is adjustable by virtue of the screw attachment means, and "generic" door closure 60.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
